

Moby Dick, Oxford Worlds Classics

Command the murderous chalices! ... Drink ye harpooners! drink and swear, ye men that man the deathful whaleboats bow-Death to Moby Dick! So Captain Ahab binds his crew to fulfil his obsession-the destruction of the great white whale. Under his lordly but maniacal command the Pequods commercial mission is perverted to one of vengeance. To Ahab, the monster that destroyed his body is not a creature, but the symbol of some unknown but still reasoning thing. Uncowed by natural disasters, ill omens, even death, Ahab urges his ship towards the undeliverable, nameless perils of the whale.
