Excerpt: ... an assistant to Mr Forster, who bore his expences on board, and allowed him a yearly stipend besides.10 Mr Hodges employed himself here in drawing a view of the Cape, town, and parts adjacent, in oil colours, which was properly packed up with some others, and left with Mr Brandt, in order to be forwarded to the Admiralty by the first ship that should sail for England. Section II. Departure from the Cape of Good Hope, in search of a Sow them Continent. Having at length finished my business at the Cape, and taken leave of the governor and some others of the chief officers, who, with very obliging readiness, had given me all the assistance I could desire, on the 22d of November we repaired on board; and at three oclock in the afternoon weighed, and came to sail with the wind at N. by W. As soon as the anchor was up, we saluted the port with fifteen guns, which was immediately returned; and after making a few trips, got out of the bay by seven oclock, at which time the town bore S.E. distant four miles. After this we stood to the westward all night, in order to get clear of the land, having the wind at N.N.YV. and N.W., blowing in squalls attended with rain, which obliged us to reef our topsails. The sea was again illuminated for some time, in the same manner as it was the night before we arrived in Table Bay. Having got clear of the land, I directed my course for Cape Circumcision. The wind continued.atN.YV. a moderate gale, until the 24th, when it veered round to the eastward. On the noon of this day, wc were in the latitude of 35 25 S., and 29 west of the Cape; and had abundance-wtU,jl ify-...., ;. / &4-.-.....?r. . i. 10 Mr G. F. speaks with much more enthusiasm, as
