

Aunt Janes Nieces and Uncle John

Major Gregory Doyle paced nervously up and down the floor of the cosy sitting room. Somethings surely happened to our Patsy! he exclaimed. A little man with a calm face and a bald head, who was seated near the fire, continued to read his newspaper and paid no attention to the outburst. Something has happened to Patsy! repeated the Major, Patsy meaning his own and only daughter Patricia. Something is always happening to everyone, said the little man, turning his paper indifferently. Something is happening to me, for I cant find the rest of this article. Something is happening to you, for youre losing your temper. Im not, sir! I deny it.
