Suresh Doss is a writer, a photographer and the publisher of SpotlightToronto.com, an online lifestyle publication focusing on food, wine and culture. He can often be found in the kitchens and vineyards of Ontario, telling the stories of people in the food and wine industry. Founder of the Food Truck Eats festival, Suresh is a pioneer in the street food movement in Toronto. In 2011, he was awarded the VQA Promoters Award for outstanding achievement in the Media category. Recently Suresh launched an online travel magazine, Rickshaw Magazine, which focuses on unique travel experiences. Mijune Pak is the creator of the award-winning Follow Me Foodie, one of the most-recognized food and travel blogs in Canada. A passionate writer whose blog has a loyal following, she is the youngest blogger--and the first food blogger-- to be invited to join the British Columbia Chefs Association. A trusted and valuable chronicler of the Vancouver food scene--for locals, tourists, food enthusiasts and industry professionals alike--Mijune brings to StreetEats Vancouver the honesty and the knowledge of food and culture for which she is known.
