

Kyoto (Chinese Edition)

As Japan's political and cultural center, Kyoto was a booming city from the time the capital was moved to Heian-kyo during the 13th year of the reign of Enryaku (794 AD) to the Meiji Restoration. The city which retains the old style the Machiya cafes and the old streets where you may encounter with maikos is a historic city worthy of the name full of ancient atmosphere. The classic itinerary carefully planned in the book can allow the visitors who pay an initial visit to Kyoto to have a good time. In the book a wealth of information comes with a souvenir presentation, Kyoto cuisine, and matcha desserts, etc.
