

The Phantom of the Opera (Clandestine Classics)

Clandestine Classics: There is no doubting the fact that the classics remain an inspiration to writers, even today, with many complex and thought-provoking storylines. But if we are honest with ourselves haven't we heard the same reserved tale told time and time again? Our collection of Clandestine Classics is about to change that. This is a collection of classics as they have never been seen before. The old fashioned pleasantries and timidity have all been stripped away, quite literally. You didn't really think that these much loved characters only held hands and pecked cheeks did you? Come with us, as we embark on a breathtaking experience behind the closed bedroom doors of our favourite, most-beloved British characters. Learn what Mr Darcy really wanted to do to Miss Elizabeth Bennet, and unveil the sexy escapades of Mr Rochester and Jane Eyre. We'll show you the scenes that you always wanted to see but were never allowed. Come on, you know you can't resist...open the pages and delve inside. The Phantom of the Opera by Gaston Leroux and Wendi Zwaduk The Classics Exposed... A chance sighting at the Opera, fated love, and three lives in turmoil. One man pledges to own her, while another wants her heart. The Opera sets the stage for romance and intrigue. In the catacombs below the building lives a man rife with sorrow and passion. The Phantom. But he's not content to live alone. He wants to possess the one woman who can set him free. His Christine. Viscount Raoul de Chagny doesn't believe the rumours of a Ghost living below the Opera. He only has eyes for Christine, his childhood friend and first love. Together they embark on a sensual journey of discovery and fiery desire. But she can only have one man. Will love raise her up or tear their world apart? About the Author: I always dreamed of writing the stories in my head. Tall, dark, and handsome heroes are my favourites, as long as he has an independent woman keeping him in line. I earned a BA in education at Kent State University and currently hold a Masters in Education with Nova Southeastern University. I love NASCAR, romance, books in general, Ohio farmland, dirt racing, and my menagerie of animals.
