

Dracula

Dracula 1897 Jonathan Harker is a newly qualified solicitor en route to Transylvania to give advice to Count Dracula on a real estate deal. Instead, Harker becomes his prisoner and witness to the Counts disturbing nocturnal life. Harker soon falls under the spell of the Sisters - three female vampires - but eventually escapes. Shortly afterward, a Russian ship runs aground in England but all of its crew are missing. The captains log describes their tumultuous journey and a strange cargo from Transylvania. When Harker arrives home, he finds he must once again face Dracula and his blood lust. Draculas Guest An Englishman in Germany explores Munich before a trip to Transylvania. He travels into a dense forest alone, fearing he is being watched by a stranger, before the storys climax in a graveyard.
