

Flickerbridge (Annotated)

Flickerbridge is a novella written by Henry James (1843-1916). It was first published in 1902. The novella tells the story of Frank Granger, an American painter sent to convalesce with his fiancée's cousin in a beautiful old mansion of the deepest England, where he is fascinated by the uncontaminated atmosphere. This edition also includes: - an extra-story by James, the well-known Brooksmith (1891); - a biographic note on James' life and works; - a complete bibliography of James' novels, novellas and short stories.
