

Frankenstein (Albion Classics Book 1)

Victor Frankenstein, a student of medicine in Geneva, engenders a creature like a man. With a supernatural strength, this creature inspires terror among everyone who crosses its way, but it only desires love and comprehension. Doctor Frankenstein abandons his creature at its own, but it follows him until his home where it demands a pair like it. However, Frankenstein's remorse leads him to destroy the female he was creating and the creature swears to get its revenge.
