

Guns of Arizona: A Land Where Legends Are Made (Arizona Territory Book 1)

With his new wife, Addie, Jack Guthrie leaves Apache Springs on his long-delayed journey to California. But the Apaches have other ideas. Taking refuge in Bonito, they soon find the town cut off by warriors. The townspeople, afraid, turn to Guthrie for help. After losing two new friends to the ravaging Indians, he decides its time to end the siege once and for all. Guthrie rides into the Apache camp, where he challenges the war chief, Esparto Ghost to battle, man to man, with the towns fate hanging in the balance.
