

Uncle Toms Cabin

Well, Toms got the real article, if ever a fellow had, rejoined the other. Why, last fall, I let him go to Cincinnati alone, to do business for me, and bring home five hundred dollars. Tom, says I to him, I trust you, because I think youre a Christian I know you wouldnt cheat. Tom comes back, sure enough; I knew he would. Some low fellows, they say, said to him Tom, why dont you make tracks for Canada? Ah, master trusted me, and I couldnt, they told me about it. I am sorry to part with Tom, I must say. You ought to let him cover the whole balance of the debt; and you would, Haley, if you had any conscience. Well, Ive got just as much conscience as any man in business can afford to keep, just a little, you know, to swear by, as t were, said the trader, jocularly; and, then, Im ready to do anything in reason to blige friends; but this yer, you see, is a leetle too hard on a fellowa leetle too hard. The trader sighed contemplatively, and poured out some more brandy. Well, then, Haley, how will you trade? said Mr. Shelby, after an uneasy interval of silence. Well, havent you a boy or gal that you could throw in with Tom? Hum! none that I could well spare; to tell the truth, its only hard necessity makes me willing to sell at all. I dont like parting with any of my hands, thats a fact.
