

Alices Adventures in Wonderland (Illustrated English version with Chinese introduction)

Written by Lewis Carroll, Alices Adventures in Wonderland is one of the greatest fairytales in the world in the 20th century. The protagonist Alice is a lovely little girl, innocent, lively, curious, and thirsty for knowledge. In a gorgeous dream, she falls into a fairyland Rabbit-hole while chasing after a rabbit, and begins her long and adventurous journey. In the end, while quarreling with Poker Queen and King, she shouts loudly and wakes up from the dream... For over a hundred years, Alices Adventures in Wonderland has been translated into dozens of languages, ranked only second to Bible and Shakespeares drama. It also has been adapted into drama, movie, TV, Ballet, opera, puppet show, and cartoon, etc. Its one of the most popular and influential fairytales in the world. The miraculous story has accompanied the beautiful childhood, youth, and adulthood of generations one after another. Whether as a language learning textbook or a popular literature book, it will deeply influence contemporary Chinese juveniles. Each chapter begins with a Chinese introduction in order to help readers learn the general content of the chapter and to improve their reading speed and efficiency. Besides, large numbers of illustrations are added to help readers better understand the story.
