

The Garden Lodge (Large Print): (Willa Cather Masterpiece Collection)

When Caroline Nobles friends learned that Raymond dEsquerre was to spend a month at her place on the Sound before he sailed to fill his engagement for the London opera season, they considered it another striking instance of the perversity of things. That the month was May, and the most mild and florescent of all the blue-and-white Mays the middle coast had known in years, but added to their sense of wrong. DEsquerre, they learned, was ensconced in the lodge in the apple orchard, just beyond Carolines glorious garden, and report went that at almost any hour the sound of the tenors voice and of Carolines crashing
