An orphan, Kim survives in the Indian streets of Lahore with the money of small errands. But when he decides to accompany a Tibetan Lama on his quest to Enlightenment, his choice sets in motion a group of drastic changes in his life. He becomes a disciple of the Tibetan Lama, at the same time that he is forcibly recruited and trained as a spy to the British government. Now, as he becomes a part of The Great Game, Kim will have to decide between his religious beliefs and the spying duties to his country.
