

Hi! Korea Its Seoul: a Perfect Tour Guide Written by a Korean

Most People think of the Korean War when they are asked what they know about Korea. Some people might think that traveling around Korea is very dangerous by prejudice. The truth is that you might not be able to see that there is no country as safe as Korea. Numerous shops in Korea are opened around the clock, and there is no problem wandering around Seoul wherever or whenever you want as CCTVs are installed everywhere for safety. You dont need to rent a car to travel around Seoul; a well-organized public transportation system is everywhere. With a T-money card you can go anywhere and buy anything. Seoul is one of the best cities to travel around. This book is written for people who would like to travel around Seoul by themselves without the help of a tour guide. You can visit any place you want by public transportation with this book as your map. This book consists of three sections: Transportation, Center of Seoul, and Gangnam. This book will be a perfect guide for you. Enjoy your trip with this book!
