

The Secret Garden (Macmillan Collectors Library)

Owing to popular demand, ROADS is delighted to launch the first books in its Childrens Classics collection An extension of the popular ROADS Classics series, these are stories to excite the imagination. Perfect for reading together at bedtime or for introducing confident younger readers to iconic works of fiction, ROADS Childrens Classics are books to treasure The Secret Garden is a poignant and much-loved classic for children and adults alike. Mary Lennox is spoiled and rude. After the passing of her parents she is sent to live with her uncle in the austere Misselthwaite Manor in Yorkshire. Horribly lonely she befriends a robin who helps her to find the key to a secret place that has been kept hidden for years. What she finds is a transformative and healing garden full of vigor and charm. Here she discovers new friends and unearths new depths to her character.
