And, as young striplings whip the top for sport, On the smooth pavement of an empty court; The wooden engine flies and whirls about, Admired, with clamours, of the beardless rout; They lash aloud; each other they provoke, And lend their little souls at every stroke; Thus fares the queen; and thus her fury blows Amidst the crowd, and kindles as she goes. Amatas breast the Fury thus invades, And fires with rage, amid the silvan shades. Then, when she found her venom spread...
