

Three Men in a Boat: To Say Nothing of the Dog

Three Men in a Boat: To Say Nothing of the Dog is a humorous account by English writer Jerome K. Jerome of a boating holiday. The story begins by introducing George, Harris, Jerome and Montmorency, a fox terrier. The men are spending an evening in J.s room, smoking and discussing illnesses they fancy they suffer from. They conclude that they are all suffering from overwork and need a holiday. A stay in the country and a sea trip are both considered, then rejected after J. describes the bad experiences of his brother-in-law and a friend on sea trips. The three decide on a boating holiday up the River Thames, from Kingston upon Thames to Oxford, during which they will camp, notwithstanding Jeromes anecdotes about previous experiences with tents and camping stoves.
