

As a Man Lives: Or, the Mystery of the Yellow House

Edward Phillips Oppenheim (22 October 1866 – 3 February 1946) was an English novelist, in his lifetime a major and successful writer of genre fiction including thrillers. Oppenheim's literary success enabled him to buy a villa in France and a yacht, then a house in Guernsey, though he lost access to this during the Second World War. Afterwards he regained the house, le Vanquiedor in St. Peter Port, and he died there on 3 February 1946. During the war he worked for the Ministry of Information.
